Thought I was finally free,
She kissed me again.

Love and Happiness

I have been since that tear of Love fell over me.

Neighbour As Yourself

Love yourself as much as if
You were your neighbour.

True, Isn't It?

To have a short happy life
Than a long sad one.

Saying a word, sad, I could
Smell the end of fun.

Silence and Crickets

Cricket singing, and
I broke a branch when walking
Towards him; silence.

Teacher and Students

Students playing, and
When hearing “teacher...coming!”
Classroom went quiet.

Autumn Leaves and Youth

Youth as autumn leaves
Hold on as long as they can.
Then, they fly away.

And when told to down play them,
She screamed “ NOT AGAIN ”.

Bats And Dark Cave

And my friend screamed “someone there?”,
Bats flew out in mass.

Hate over indifference;
It simply hurts less.

Nowhere freeing me.

The boy screamed “police coming!”,
Quiet empty pub.

Stares and Smiles

A dynamic day
Today, her smiles warmed it up,
His stares cooled it off.

The things I loved the most, you
And cotton candy.

We know, the one smiling last
Is the true winner.

I saw tonight made me think
How much I miss you.

A heart with no point
Of entry will never know
The magic of love.

Kisses and Flirty Smiles

Mix flirty smiles with Quiet kisses, and you will Get love in silence.

Blue Sky and Wind

A windy day, the Sky is totally blue - I wish I was a kite.

The full moon looks majestic-
Secret lovers laugh.

She looked at me, smiled, raised her
Eyes,...I felt in love.
